ABOUT MARCIA

Marcia Narine Weldon is the Founder and CEO of Illuminating Wisdom, dedicated to empowering individuals to transform their mindsets, skillsets, and lives through evidence-based strategies. A 2X best-selling author, podcaster, and course creator, Marcia is a seasoned executive coach with a focus on professionals in law, compliance, professional services, entrepreneurship, and nonprofit leadership. She facilitates retreats and strategy sessions for high achievers, leveraging her diverse expertise and certifications in applied neuroscience, neurolinguistic programming, mindfulness, hypnotherapy, breathwork, and other modalities. She is passionate about speaking and advocating on mental health and well-being.

Certified in mental health first aid and a member of the Forbes Coaches Council and International Coaching Federation, Marcia brings over two decades of coaching experience to her practice. She has consulted on human capital, legal, compliance, and strategic issues for businesses and nonprofits of all sizes, and has been retained to provide coaching, training, workshops, and keynotes by some of the largest law firms in the world as well as companies such as Microsoft, Spirit Airlines, and HSBC.

Currently serving as General Counsel for an AI startup and a nonprofit, Marcia is an award-winning professor who also directs the Transactional Skills program at the University of Miami School of Law. Her insights have been sought after by renowned publications worldwide, including the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Newsweek, the Washington Post, the Guardian, Forbes, and more..

Previously, Marcia held executive roles at Ryder, a Fortune 500 company, overseeing global compliance, privacy, government relations, Human Resources for a company division, and more. She testified before Congress on the impact of Dodd-Frank Financial Reform, was appointed by the US Secretary of Labor to serve on the Department of Labor's Whistleblower Protection Advisory Committee, and served as a Commissioner on the Miami-Dade's Commission on Ethics and Public Trust.

A graduate of Harvard Law School and Columbia University, Marcia is admitted to the bars of Florida, New York, and the United States Supreme Court. With a rich background spanning law, business, and academia, Marcia is committed to guiding individuals and organizations towards excellence and fulfillment.

TESTIMONIALS

“I want to extend a big thanks to my colleagues and our effervescent guest speaker Marcia Narine Weldon. She truly gave us actionable gems that immediately warmed us up to become bonded by our similarities and unique qualities.”

K. F., Spirit Airlines

“Marcia Narine Weldon thank you for sharing your wisdom, for being an awesome and personable facilitator. We appreciated your gifts.”

A.G- Crew Chief Trainer, Sprit Airlines

“I just finished listening to your CLE on Legal Fuel (Harnessing the Power of Stress; Developing Grit and a Growth Mindset) and I wanted to say thank you. I found the CLE to be very informative and most importantly, helpful. As is the story with many, the pandemic hit me hard and affected my mental health most. I've been steadily working to make positive changes in my life and work through my struggles with anxiety. Your CLE provided me with many tools that I can use to get on the right track.”

Again, thank you very much for taking the time to provide us lawyers with this important information. You are doing incredible work and I hope to see our profession continue to change for the better.”

A.W., Law Firm Senior Associate

“

“I became a lawyer in 1981, have sat through many hours of CLE. Must commend you on an interesting program, especially your pace. I used to listen to tapes and would speed them up because so many lecturers speak so slowly. Bravo!”

Joe W.
